2015 Throwback

I'm With You "This is the covenant I will make with the people of Israel after that time," declares the Lord. "I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people." -Jeremiah 31:31

The word "promise" is used way too often in my opinion. Most of us have been hurt by this word and have had to pick up our own pieces and move on, or help someone else pick up their pieces. God is the only one who has kept and will continue to keep His promises. He did not say that our lives would be easy, but that He would be with us always. We must lean on our faith and let it be strengthened by scriptures such as this. One way for us to call on Him in our times of trouble is to simply just whisper his name, "Jesus." I like to imagine a huge heart of Sonja colored roses and the words inside that say, "I'm With You." For He tells us in this scripture that He will put the laws in our minds and write His covenants on our hearts. When I was a little girl, I learned a song about all God's children "...Red, Brown, Yellow, Black and White We are Precious in His sight, Jesus Loves the Little Children of the World.....

" Dear Heavenly Father, We pause once more to give you thanks for the many blessings of this day. We thank you for your promises that you write on each of our hearts that you are our God and we are your people. In Your Name We Pray, Amen.
