God's Creation

Since the creation of the world God's invisible qualities - His eternal power and divine nature - have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, so that men are without excuse.

Paul provides reasons for his argument about why people are accountable before God. Nobody can say that they did not know of God's existence (see Ps. 1:20-21). Just look around you. Look at the mountains, the animals, the ocean. Look at the birds and the flowers. Look at the people around you.

Look at your parents, children, spouse.

The more you look, the more you will begin to understand the glory of God, who holds everything in His hands.

Unbelief is one of the riddles in this world. How is it possible to see everything and not glorify God? This unbelief is not God's fault. It is our own blindness, our own choice when we say that God does not exist. It is our own choice to worship creation instead of the Creator. If you do not see Him in the simplest things, how will you be able to see Him in the greater things?
