Love Each Other

"As the Father has loved Me, so have I loved you.

Now remain in My love. If you obey My commands, you will remain in My love. My command is this:

Love each other as I have loved you."

Jesus chose us to be His friends - what a privilege! He shares everything His Father made known to Him with His disciples, His friends and confidants. As their friend, He knows what price He will pay for those He loves - His own life.

What does Jesus' friendship cost you? What is the depth of your relationship with Him? Jesus gives us clear guidelines.

Our love should reflect His: "Love each other as I have loved you." How will we be able to do this? "If you obey My commands, you will remain in My love."

To be a faithful friend to Jesus is to do what He says and to love other people as He loved us. Who are your friends and what kind of friend are you? True friends demonstrate Jesus' love. Only then are we faithful to Him.
